May 30, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation ("Quizam" or "the Company") is pleased to announce Point Grey Secondary school has signed an agreement With Quizam to explore new learning resources for students in the Special Education programs.

Point Grey is located on the west side of Vancouver, in the heart of Kerrisdale. The school, a unique "Collegiate Gothic" architectural design, is bordered by a track and field facility, tennis courts, Kerrisdale Park and the Kerrisdale Ice Arena. Most students who attend the school live within the Kerrisdale, Shaughnessy, Southlands, Musqueam and Dunbar areas.

Point Grey Secondary is a comprehensive school with approximately 1400 students in Grades 8 - 12. Point Grey students have a 75 year tradition of excelling in academics, fine and performing arts, athletics and service. There are four District programs at Point Grey: a Mini School program which provides an enriched curriculum to 150 students in Grades 8 - 12; and three Special Education programs—Junior Extended Skills, Life Skills, and LA Lifeskills with a total enrolment of 45 students. There is also an in-house First Nations Program called "Bridge/Transitions."

Lynda Hall, District Resource Teacher comments, "Quizam is good for what it does – I am interested in its ability to add question distracters."

Russ Rossi, President of Quizam stated, "Our new version, soon to be released, has a full menu of Distractor options that will be very exciting for our expanding user base."
