June 23, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce Kamloops/Thompson Virtual School’s Special Education Department has signed an agreement with Quizam to help students assess their learning online. This brings the total number of schools signed on with Quizam to 44 in Canada, USA, UK, Australia and Hong Kong. Based on an average of 800 students per school that’s over 35,000 students with licences to use Quizam worldwide.

Recently added Kamloops/Thompson Virtual School is a Ministry of Education accredited electronic distance education program. Students in Virtual School learn at home using a variety of paper-based, computer-based, and online resources. Using their own computer and connection to the Internet, students access learning materials, visit course websites, and communicate with their teachers via e-mail.

The KTVS offers courses from grades 1-12 to adult learners. ‘School in Summer’, is an opportunity for students to take full-credit high school courses online during July and August.

John Leahy, Teacher of Special Education, states, “Kamloops/Thompson Virtual School allows registered students from other schools to access our programs and receive teacher’s support”.

Irene Dual, Director of Business Development, comments, “Kamloops/Thompson Virtual School is an example of the future of our educational system. Students will soon have the flexibility to custom tailor their educational needs and teachers will facilitate or coach students. Quizam is the next best thing to having a tutor and prepares students for the future.”
