June 29, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce Riverside Trades, Training and Career Centre has signed an agreement with Quizam to help students learn while they earn.

Sixty percent of job openings in the next ten years are expected to be in Trades and Technology. At Riverside students train for a trade while completing high school and are placed into an apprenticeship position. Courses offered include the following trades: Carpentry, Warehousing, Cosmetology, Nail Technology, Automotive Technology and Plumbing.

The Riverside Continuing Education Center is designed for adults 19 and over. Students have the flexibility of starting at any time, year round. The Center offers courses that lead towards the BC Secondary School Diploma (Adult Dogwood) as well as prerequisites for many post secondary programs.

Mr. Stan Weir, District Vice Principal stated, “Riverside is a school dedicated to providing students with a bridge to the world of employment by giving them the skills and attitudes necessary for starting a career.”

Russ Rossi, President of Quizam stated, “A vocational education bridges the academic with applied learning. Quizam will enhance how students perform on The Ministry of Education Computer Based tests”.
