September 14, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce Chief Maquinna Elementary has signed an agreement to use Quizam for elementary students in the school's computer lab.

Maquinna main school officially opened in 1953 followed by the Annex in 1968. There are approximately 450 students enrolled in Kindergarten to Grade Seven in the two schools. The Annex is unique in that all students are primary age in classes from Kindergarten to Grade Three. Maquinna schools have a culturally diverse population. There are over thirty languages spoken in the community, with the most predominate being English, Cantonese and Mandarin. The school program is enriched with music, dance, drama and art.

Alan Zisman, computer teacher and technology writer for ‘Business in Vancouver,’ will assess Quizam and states, “I’m happy to pilot Quizam and will give you my unbiased assessment.”

Irene Dual, Director, states, “I’m looking forward to receiving feedback from Mr. Zisman, I often read his articles to find out what’s new in technology. I’m delighted to say that we are starting off the school year strong; the Power of Q is On! It’s wonderful that children at such a young age have the opportunity to develop their computer skills in a fun and interactive way plus with Quizam, develop teamwork, organizational and memory skills that will build confidence in learning new things.”
