September 15, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce that Quizam Media Corporation will provide Quizam 2.0 to support African Methodist Episcopal (AME) University’s goals toward revitalizing and upgrading their learning resources.

Centrally located in the Liberian capitol, Monrovia, the AME University is a private, co-educational, and four-year degree granting institution in three colleges: the Bryant Theological Seminary, the College of Business and Public Administration and the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences.

The AME University was established in 1995 to provide higher education and is accredited by Liberia’s Commission on Higher Education, Ministry of Education. The University is now the second largest university in Liberia with 3,700 students enrolled. At present, 77% of the University’s students are in the Business College, 20% in the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, and 3% in the Bryant Theological Seminary. The University is committed to increasing female enrolment and is in the planning stages of building a Women’s Resource Center, with a proposed Women’s Studies Program toward enhancing women’s opportunities, empowerment and leadership.

Dr. Levi B. Zangai, President of AME University and the Right Reverend Dr. David R. Daniels, Jr., Presiding Bishop of the 14th Episcopal District and the Chairman, AMEU Board of Trustees, both agree, “We like what we’ve read about Quizam and think it will be a great help to our students”.

Irene Dual, Director of New Business, states, “I’m pleased to offer Quizam as part of AME’s goals toward providing additional educational resources. AME University has survived years of civil conflict; despite of it, the University has kept its doors open, that’s quite an accomplishment”.
