September 28th, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce Van Tech has signed an agreement to use Quizam for a variety of special programs and courses. Quizam software will be used to help students determine areas of strength and areas requiring focused coaching and instruction.

Van Tech has a history of taking a “no nonsense” approach to learning. The school prides itself for maintaining its high educational standards spanning over 90 years. In spite of its technical origin, the school is now a completely comprehensive secondary school with strong academic and enrichment programs, together with highly successful elective area in Art, Music, Business Education, Technical Studies, Home Economics, Hairdressing, Modern Languages, Physical Education (a most successful Athletic Program), Learning Assistance Classes, two Alternate Programs (Sunrise and Spectrum) Career Prep. options, and Advance Placement Programs. The school’s initiatives integrating technology into the classroom include special websites for Science, Social Studies, Business Education, Technology, Library and Student projects.

Van Tech is one of the largest secondary schools in Vancouver. An administration of one Principal, three Vice-Principals, a teaching staff of over 100, secretarial, support staff and a custodial staff serve the needs of approximately 1800 students.

Irene Dual states, “I’m very pleased that Van Tech is piloting Quizam because it will present an opportunity to include parents more in understanding the connection between self-assessment and learning”.
