October 18, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce Kelowna Secondary School has signed a deal with Quizam so as to expose their students to “New Learning Opportunities”.

Kelowna Secondary School is the only dual track secondary school in School District #23 enrolling 1779 students in grades 10, 11 and 12. KSS has a longstanding reputation for its strengths in academics, fine arts and athletics. The School is a tapestry of individuals, programs, courses, and extra curricular activities that has produced outstanding graduates such as Bill Bennet, ex-premiere of BC (1950), Brian Weddell, provincial court judge (1950), Brock Aynsley, ex-football player (1968), Dave Barr, Professional golf player (1969), Cyril Ross Lander, Supreme Court judge (1951), and Kevin Kane, band Grapes of Wrath (1982).

At KSS the Library is a central resource where technology meets literacy with online resources, databases, curriculum links – all facilitating school, home and community interaction. The use of technology is growing and many faculty members have created their own websites to host assignments and dates for upcoming tests. Email is used as a means of communicating to parents and students on a regular basis.

Irene Dual, Director of New Business states, “With Quizam quizzes can be emailed including scores, so that parents are kept informed of their children’s progress. Quizam offers new learning opportunities for students to improve the basics of Literacy and Numeracy.”

Kelowna is the third largest metropolitan area in British Columbia and the largest in BC's interior. Kelowna is one of the fastest growing cities in North America.
