November 23, 2006 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce Rutland Middle School has signed up to use Quizam software with their Laptop Pilot Program. Students will be able to visit the school’s site and download Quizam onto their laptops to create customized quizzes and use as a study-aid in preparation for final exams.

Every grade 7 and 8 registered at Rutland Middle School has been supplied with a laptop computer together with software and accessories. Each day students at Rutland are responsible for bringing their laptop (fully charged) to research and complete class assignments.

The laptops are leased by School District #23 located in the Okanagan Valley in Kelowna BC. Rutland serves 650 students from grade 7-9.

Mr. Curtis Schreiber, Principal of Rutland Middle School, states, “our grade seven and eight students have had their computers for over a month, and are using them in many of their classes on a regular basis’.

Russ Rossi, president of Quizam states, “We hope to become partners in education with progressive schools like Rutland Middle School.. The Laptop Pilot program is a perfect fit with Quizam. It’s clear that Rutland is taking leadership in differentiated teaching strategies and inspiring students to become life-long learners.”
