May 3rd , 2007 – Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce that the Department of Education and Culture has agreed to make Quizam available to primary and secondary schools including special education institutions. At the primary level (5-11) there are currently 2,726 students and at the secondary level (12-17) 2,245 students.

Human resource development, of which education is a major component, is one of the four main development strategies of the Government to make the British Virgin Islands a World Class International Financial Services and Tourism Centre.

The Education Department’s goal is to ensure that each child has access to the appropriate kind of education that fit his age and aptitudes and that training facilities for teachers are available. Teaching methods and quality assessments will focus on preparing students academically for tertiary education and for the labour force.

Quizam will play an integral role in preparing students academically for tertiary education and the workforce.

Russ Rossi, CEO, commented “I’m pleased that British Virgin Islands has agreed to make Quizam available for students and teachers. Schools will have access to multi-lingual quizzes from around the world. Graduates will have a better understanding of globalization and will be prepared for the future. This all supports the BVI’s world-class workforce for tourism and financial services.”
