July 26th, 2007– Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce five School Districts in the US have signed an agreement to pilot Quizam software. Representative from each District will test-drive Quizam and upon request Quizam Media Corporation will develop curricula that meet State Educational Standards. The five Districts are:

El Paso Independent School District, the largest district in the Texas Education Agency's Educational Service Center - Region 19. Located in El Paso, Texas, with more than 63,000 students in 92 campuses, EPISD also is the seventh largest district in Texas and the 57th largest district in the United States.

Clarksville-Montgomery County is the seventh largest district in the State of Tennessee. CMCSS is located between Fort Campbell, Kentucky and Nashville, Tennessee. The District serves more than 28,000 students and employs about 3,400 teachers, administrators and support staff. There are 32 schools: one K-5 magnet school, 18 elementary, seven middle, and six high schools.

The Lamar County School District is a public school district based in Purvis Mississippi.

In addition to Purvis, the district serves the town of Sumrall and the community of West Hattiesburg (Oak Grove) as well as most rural areas in Lamar County. Total District enrollment is 6,500.

The Cobb County School District, located in north metro Atlanta, is the second-largest school system in Georgia serving a diverse population of 107,274 students in 113 schools.

The DeKalb County School System (DCSS) is a metropolitan Atlanta public school system located in the second largest county in Georgia. DeKalb is one of the most culturally diverse counties in the nation, has a student enrollment of more than 102,000 students in 143 schools and centers, and 13,285 full-time employees.

Russ Rossi, president of Quizam, stated, “Our goal is to make Quizam accessible for all students. The best way to accomplish this is to work with Districts. We are here to help and make each and every student succeed in school.”
