March 9th, 2009 Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“the Company”) (TSX-V: QQ). Would like to correct and clarify the News Release on March 6th, 2009 regarding the reduction and re-pricing of warrants.

It is 500,000 warrants from the March 2008 financing being re priced not, as the March 6th news release stated, 480,000 from the August 2008 Financing.

Originally these warrants expired March 11th, 2009 not August 18th, 2009 as the March 6th news release stated. The revised expiry date is now December 31st, 2009.

Originally these warrants had a strike price of $1.10 for first 6 months and $1.75 for second 6 months. The new exercise price has been reduced to $0.30.

There is a forced exercise provision as follows: If the closing price for the company's shares is 30 cents or greater for a period of 10 consecutive trading days, then the warrant holders will have 30 days to exercise their warrants; otherwise the warrants will expire on the 31st day.

The TSX Venture Exchange has consented to the reduction in the exercise price and to the extension in the expiry date of the above referenced warrants.
