May 20th, 2014 Vancouver, BC – Quizam Media Corporation (“the Company”) (TSX-V: QQ) is pleased to announce that it has signed a deal with eco-Options Energy Cooperative. Under the terms of the Deal, Eco-Options Energy will use ontrackTV’s learning platform for delivery of Propane Regulator Installation Training.

Vicki Asada, Sales Director for ontrackTV, commented, “Online training will reduce distance and work schedule barriers for skilled Red Seal automotive mechanics to become certified in Propane technology bringing the alternative fuel option to remote communities of BC. The training model is a grassroots means to the end of reducing climate change.”

The project will meet the training goals of the BC Ministry of Jobs, Tourism and Skills Training. Shannon Baillie, Executive Director Skills Training, Ministry of Jobs, Tourism and Skills Training commented, “I am extremely interested in this”.

About Eco-Options Energy:

Eco-options members are industrial fleet owners committed to climate mitigation. They have hundreds of members across North America. One of their goals is to standardize the propane conversion process thereby reducing downtime for upgrading fleets, making it more economically feasible to adopt the new technologies. Propane conversions dramatically reduce fuel costs and greenhouse gas emissions.
