March 28th, 2011 - Vancouver, BC - Quizam Media Corporation (“Quizam” or “the company”) is pleased to announce that the BC Safety Authority has made their 3rd purchase for another 50 annual licences of www.ontrackTV.com in addition to their 2nd May 11th, 2010 purchase.

The British Columbia Safety Authority (BCSA) is an independent, self-funded corporation that inspires safety excellence in British Columbia by collaborating with business, industry and the general public to enhance the safety of technical systems, products, equipment and work.

David Lee, Director of Business Development, states “we are excited to see that the BCSA has made a third purchase, which is a great indication of the continual value our on-line system is providing to B.C.’s top safety training organization.”
